Excuse me, hello. I would like to visit Ferrara next week, and I need some information. Can you help me? Are there any limitations in the city centre, or can I move freely with my personal car? How can I best move around once I am in the city centre?

I need help, we have been in a car accident. My wife has hurt her arm, she needs medical attention. Our car hit another car and now they are both in the middle of the street. The other driver is not hurt, and neither am I.

Hello, I would like some information about this infraction I found on my car. I had parked in front of the Cathedral, and I don't understand what is wrong. Can you explain it to me please? And what are my options to settle the infraction?

Good afternoon, I have received a phone call from you because my brother has been arrested. They told me he refused to show his documents and to follow you to the station. Can I see him? Where are you keeping him? Is he going to court tomorrow?
